WILL WIDEN A NARROW ROAD

COUNTY COURT ORDERS CONDEMNATION NEAR SKIDMORE

SURVEY IS DISPUTED

Three Other Road Cases to Be Settled Without Taking Them Into Court

At the order of the County Court, condemnation proceedings will be begun at once against W. E. Hammond and Frank Collins, land owners near Skidmore, to secure the widening of a road adjacent to their farms.

The present road, its eastern end a mile west and a mile south of Skidmore, is very narrow From fence to fence it is only about thirty feet wide most of the distance, according to George S. Miller, county surveyor, and in places narrows to about twenty feet. It extends for one mile, east and west, following the section line between sections 7 and 18 in township 63, range 37.

The movement for widening of the road was first begun more than a year ago, and the County Court ordered a survey made at that time. Surveyor Miller reported that in order to make the road the standard forty feet in width it would be necessary to take .96 acre of the Hammond land and .54 acre from Collins. It would be necessary also for the two land owners to move their fences back.

The Collins and Hammond land is on the north side of the road. The owners of the land on the south, Fred Holtsclaw and H. B. McDowell, already have moved their fences back enough, according to the surveyor.

Hammond and Collins have disputed the survey, declaring that the center line of the road had not been properly located, and it is understood that they will resist the condemnation proceedings.

Two other new roads in various parts of the county have been declared open recently without the necessity of condemnation proceedings. One extends for a mile west from the concrete road south of Maryville, beginning at a point about one-half mile north of the Davis School. The new road will give quicker access to the highway to residents of that vicinity and to persons coming from Graham and Maitland. It will substitute a half mile of concrete paving for the present half-mile jog to the north.

It was necessary to give damages to the owners of land through which the new road passed, W. D. Hoshor, Ed Busby and J. A. Davidson, but the petitioners contributed to a fund to assist the County Court. The new road will be built this spring.

Another mile of new road has been authorized in the vicinity of Bedison. This road will pass through land of E. E. Williams and Mrs. Belle Williams. They have agreed to accept damages, awarded them by the County Court.

A third project, the straightening of a road near Quitman, is expected now to be carried out without difficulty. E. C. Culp, through whose land the new road will pass, has agreed to accept damages offered him by the County Court.

Fred Shell, assessor of Monroe Township, has filed his assessment books for 1926 with the county clerk. He made 719 real estate lists and 367 lists of personal property at a total cost to the county and state of $143.65, each paying half.

Twenty-six educational lectures were given by officers of the department during the month, with a total attendance of 435 persons. One hundred and fifty bulletins were distributed.

Forty-eight sanitary inspections were made in December. Twenty-six of these were at public premises.

Out of twenty-eight visits made to suspects of acute communicable diseases, eleven quarantines were made.

Seven persons were treated for prevention or cure of goitre, and ten persons were given the anti-smallpox vaccination.

Four hundred and thirty-five school children were examined, and 795 defects were found on 360 of them. Twelve homes were visited. Fifty adults visited the office during the month, and twenty-five children went there for examination.

Sixty-two cases of tonsils and adenoids removals were reported. Inspection for prevention and spread of contagious diseases was given to 181 persons. Eighteen children attended a rural clinic.

Light Road Graders May Be Purchased

Those Present At Township Board Meeting Yesterday Generally Favored New Equipment.

Those attending the meeting of the Polk Township board yesterday afternoon were generally in favor of purchasing several light patrol graders to replace the heavier machinery now in use. It is the general opinion of the board members that five or six of these horse-drawn graders should be purchased and some definite system of road maintenance in the township worked out.

No definite action resulted from the meeting yesterday although it is believed that about five of these graders will be purchased within the next few weeks. The new machinery would cost approximately $1,000.

Definite action will be taken within the next week or two, Burt M. Rowley, township trustee, said this morning.

DIRIGIBLE TO BE ABANDONED

NAVY BILL PROVIDES NO SUCCESSOR TO SHENANDOAH.

BIG ROW DEVELOPMENT

Air Enthusiasts May Open Fire on Board Which Declares Huge Ships of Doubtful Value.

Washington, Jan. 14—The government appeared today to be about ready to go out of the dirigible business.

If the new navy bill, just introduced in Congress, is enacted as appears probable, it will mean no replacement of the illfated Shenandoah, meaning the virtual abandonment of the great naval air station at Lakehurst and the drastic curtailment in all of the navy's experiments with lighter-than-air ships of the Zeppelin type.

A keen row is developing in the navy as a result and before it is ended there may be some more Mitchell cases. The air enthusiasts in the navy are aghast despite the fact that some German military experts have boasted that "if Germany had had more submarines and more Zeppelins, Germany would have won the war."

The general board of the navy has decided that dirigibles of the Shenandoah type are of debatable military value. It was against this general board that Col. William Mitchell directed some of his hottest fire.

Blames Sun for Poor Reception for Radio

Chicago, Jan. 14.—Those mysterious and unearthly shrieks, whistles and howls which are anathema to the radio fan may be blamed on explosion on the surface of the sun, Professor Forest Ray Moulton of the University of Chicago department of astronomy believes.

In a lecture here Professor Moulton said that the explosion of the sun probably would have a distinct effect on radio reception.

"When the explosions occur on the sun it means that vast balls of fire and stupendous rockets are shot out into space."

Dancing Reinstated at Wooster College

Wooster, Ohio, Jan. 14. (United Press).—Dancing, for years banned by faculty and student action at Wooster College here, has been reinstated, and although no modern dances are to be allowed, the square dances, waltz and two step will be allowed.

The Charleston, fox trot and other steps of 1926 are still under the ban, but Henry Ford's revival of the old dances is meeting favor with the "collegiate" crowd.

French Tennis Champ Heavy Betting Favorite

Paris, Jan. 14 (United Press)—Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, French tennis champion, is a 3 to 1 favorite in the "gentlemen betting" to defeat Miss Helen Wills, the American champion, should they meet in any of the Riviera winter tournaments.

Tennis critics who saw the young American champion play in the 1924 Olympic matches admit she has more speed and power but they favor Mlle. Lenglen to win because of her more versatile style in the game, superior strategy and uncanny control.

Mrs. Fannie Rawlins and daughter, Miss Rhoda Rawlins, of Rocheport, Mo., arrived yesterday to visit their daughter and sistes, Mrs. Philip Simpich, and Mr. Simpich.

Sapiro Quits After Delegates Urge Bill

Sapiro resented the action of a group of delegates seeking to present a definite legislation program after he had spoken against proposed surplus marketing bill.

BITTER COLD GRIPS EUROPE

HAND OF FATE FALLS HEAVILY ON CONTINENT.

FOLLOWS BIG FLOOD

Low Temperatures Prevail in Many Nations and Many Suffer—Old Records Broken.

London, Jan. 14.—The hand of fate falls heavily on Europe this winter.

Hardly have the devastating floods, which swept most of Europe, subsided before an abnormal cold wave, accompained by terrific gales from the Mediterranean is causing great suffering.

In Leningrad, the cold record of 137 years has been broken. Moscow suffers and is threatened by a fuel famine.

Thirty-six vessels are reported icebound for more than three weeks in the Gulf of Finland. The crews already are suffering from a food shortage.

Throughout Italy, snow has fallen. London and Paris experienced bitter cold last night. In the area surrounding Marcelona, a gale is reported to have done wide damage.

Europeans, and particularly those of the porer classes, are never prepared for bitter cold weather and the present cold wave brings untold suffering in its wake.

Radical Measure Is Urged by Governor

Pinchot Asks Legislature to Authorize State Control of Anthracite Coal Situation.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 14.—Drastic legislation of national significance, sponsored by Governor Gifford Pinchot, which would put the anthracite coal industry under state control is regarded by the lawmakers of Pennsylvania as a proposal that must be handled with extreme caution.

The majority of the legislators interviewed today advised a "go slow" policy in making a law of such revolutionary character. Few of the legislators were for it, many were against it and most of them "withheld judgment."

No legislature in the history of Pennsylvania has ever been asked to enact such drastic legislation, it was generally agreed.

DEATH TOLL IS PLACED AT 91

Twenty-One Bodies Removed Up To 1:15 P. M.

TEN RESCUED ALIVE

Workers Busy Pulling Out Dead Men From Mine Wrecked By Gas Explosion Yesterday Morning.

Wilburton, Okla., Jan. 14.—Twenty-one grotesque chalk marks stood out on the tipple of the wrecked Degnas-McConnell mine as mute evidence this afternoon of the result of rescue workers busily engaged in removing the bodies from the shaft.

Ninety-one miners are now believed to have been killed in yesterday's explosion.

Twenty-one bodies had been brought to the surface at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon. Beryl Holland, negro miner, was revived by rescue workers. He was the second man to come out of the mine alive today in addition to the eight who were pulled to safety yesterday.

Wilburton, Okla., Jan. 14.—Fires in the Degnan-McConnell mine were extinguished at 10 o'clock this morning. All that now remains is to bring out the dead, which will number 100, according to Ed Boyle, state mine inspector.

Cecil McKinney, 25, crawled out of the twisted timbers shortly before 10 o'clock this morning, bringing the number of rescued to nine, eight negroes having been brought out late yesterday afternoon.

Today wreckage from yesterday's explosion has been cleared away.

Rescue workers and workmen from nearby mines kept an endless toil bringing to the surface bodies of the men from the bowels of the earth. Forty-nine bodies had been located up to noon today and eighteen brought to the surface.

A call for a relief fund for the families will be broadcast, many left destitute, it was indicated today at Red Cross headquarters in McAlester nearby. A large number of the miners' families include several children and they have no other means of support, it was said.

Meanwhile, Wilburton went about its grim task of burying its dead this afternoon. Funeral arrangements for the first sixteen victims brought to the surface were being made. The lone morgue in this little mining settlement has been augmented by the use of vacant buildings where the bodies will be placed until they can be prepared for burial. Many of the bodies will be taken to other places for burial, it was said, as some of the men only recently had moved to Wilburton.

National guardsmen were on duty today keeping back the crowds and aiding in the work at the surface of the mine.

The miners, variously estimated at between 100 and 125, were entombed by the explosion believed to have been caused by gas accumulation in one of the shafts, barely forty-five minutes after they had started to work yesterday morning.

Plans for Settlement of Italian Debt Made

No Discussions On Payment To Britain —Greece Wants To Borrow More From U. S.

London, Jan. 14.—Negotiations for for the settlement of the Italian debt to Great Britain opened here today. Count Volpi, Italian finance minister, opened conversation with Winston Churchill, chancellor of the exchequor, and refused to discuss negotiations with newspaper men. The Italian debt to Great Britain is $2,900,000,000.

Washington, Jan. 14.—If the United States will lend Greece $30,000,000 Greece will pay the $15,000,000 she now owes the United States.

This proposition was formally laid before the American debt-funding commission by the Greek debt envoys here today. The proposal will not be accepted, it was learned at the treasury department.

Stovepipe Hat Is in Evidence White House

This Season's Social Functions Prove That Plug Tile Far From Obsolete.

By CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer.

Washington—One thing this season's White House social functions have proven is that the plug tile is far from obsolete.

That is to say, it's still affected by an overwhelming majority of the president's civilian callers. Of course the army and navy men wear their uniform headgear. With few exceptions the members of the diplomatic corps are uniformed, too, mostly with cocked hats and some with waving plumes, like an old-fashioned hearse.

But for ordinary people—ordinary people of consequence, not the hoi polloi, who attend the public receptions—the stovepipe's the rule among all who care a cent for appearances.

Speaking of hats—Representative H. St. George Tucker of Virginia had his blown off a few days ago, going down Pennsylvania avenue. In it was a speech Tucker had prepared, denouncing the appropriation of money to enable prohibition agents to buy liquor. The wind broadcast that speech all over northwest Washington.

Right then Tucker delivered a speech all right, but it was impromptu.

Wayne B. Wheeler grinned fiendishly when he heard about it.

Col. Cheney, chief military aide at the White House, used to be one of the principal ornaments at all functions there. Now there's a scandal about him.

All during New Year's reception one of the front buttons on his full dress uniform coat was unbuttoned. Nobody noticed it at the time, but a photograph of him, standing in the receiving line alongside the Coolidges, subsequently revealed it.

The president has decided against a court-martial, but life never can be the same again to Sherwood Cheney.

UNDER CAPITOL DOME

Origin of the Insurgent Movement

By Paul R. Mallon

Washington, Jan. 14 (United Press).—Leading the battle for President Coolidge's world court on the Republican side of the Senate Chamber is a man who himself might be sitting in the White House today if one of his comrades had not been ten minutes late making a speech.

The queerest trick of fate kept Senator Irvin L. Lenroot, Republican Wisconsin from being nominated at the Republican National Convention in 1920 in Chicago as vice presidential candidate instead of President Coolidge.

Now Lenroot is facing the hardest fight of his career to keep his place in the Senate. He is up for re-election in November and aligned against him are the La Follette-Blaine coalition forces who seem to be in control of the state. Defeat would send him back to private life.

Here's how it happened:

Warren G. Harding had been nominated for the presidency in 1920 after it had become apparent that neither Frank O. Lowden of Illinois nor Major General Leonard Wood could be nominated. Lowden and Wood had dead locked the convention and Harding was chosen as a compromise. The same group of leaders that chose Harding also selected Lenroot as vice-presidential candidate.

The word was passed around that both would be put over the next day. Harding was nominated and the tired delegates drifted out of the convention hall unattracted by the comparatively uninteresting routine of choosing Lenroot as vice presidential candidate.

The late Senator Medill McCormick was selected to nominate Lenroot. For some unexplained reason he was not present when it came time to recognize him for the nominating speech and when he did get up, the restlessness of the delegates prompted him to cut short his remarks. It seemed an entirely useless procedure.

With Lenroot unopposed, Wallace McCamant, a delegate from Oregon, suddenly jumped to his feet and put Coolidge in nomination. He had not been thought of as vice-presidential candidate before. The Massachusetts delegation had been backing him for the presidential nomination, but not for the vice presidency.

The arrangements for putting Lenroot over, stumbled upon McCormick's delay and what followed is history. Harding and Coolidge swept the country and when Harding died Coolidge succeeded him in the White House.

Coolidge's victories might have been Lenroots but for the little trick of fate.

Speaker Nick Longworth has furnished his office with two brilliant red morocco chairs that were given him as a Christmas present from a friend. The red wouldn't fit in with the "Alice Blue" motive at his home so he had them removed to his office.

The portrait of Senator Frederick H. Gillet, former speaker of the house has been added to the collection of portraits of 36 of his predecessors in the speakers' lobby. Edmund C. Tarbell of Massachusetts painted it during Gillets' term as speaker.

Chinamen Ain't So Dumb!

In China a doctor gets paid a fee BY THE YEAR! He gets this fee only so long as there is NO SICKNESS in the family. Let someone break out in a fever and the doc's pay STOPS! He gets paid for PREVENTING sickness rather than CURING IT!

And that's just how you folks should look on this store of ours! It's a fact that we have 1,000 Preventives to ONE real CURE! And winter with its constantly shifting temperatures is a hard season on ALL of us. We slip from one extreme to the other—many times by simply taking on or putting off a heavy coat or wrap!

So it seems to us appropriate to attempt focusing your mind a moment on a few WINTER PREVENTIVES — O. K.???

A Winter Tonic!

Differs aplenty from the sort you need in the spring and summer. You want FOOD VALUE in the Winter Tonic and just as much POWER and JOLT as in the others. Cod Liver Oil associated carefully with MALT is the best we know of and is especially excellent to give the youngster on account of its being so pleasant to take. When full of this, a germ becomes so discouraged he leaves pronto!

Can You Bend Easily or Are You "Chapped?"

Our floral lotion for chapped lips, hands, face and knees makes for a flexible, pinkly, happy skin, which responds in a kindly way to all movements. Use your own judgment, however. Prevents that "set look."

Do You Expect to Read to 100?

The Lord lets you grow a new skin every so often, and a busted bone sorta knits back in place, and some folks grow 3 sets of teeth and hair can be restored and you can graft on ears and cheeks and such, but bigee you only get ONE SET OF EYES! So take care of 'em! ! Goggles on a windy day, night driving or at the Follies are very essential protection. Willson Goggles for sun, cold, wind or glare.

Cold Feet—Brides Hot Water Bottles!

Started out to say about how disillusioning it is to meet up with a pair of cold feet—other than your own—but I got frightened and will say absolutely NOTHING on this subject. We have a fine Hot Water Bottle which probably got me on this subject. (If your feet are warm, ALL of you is warm—no chance for a germ to get a grip on you.)

Ever Cure a Cold?

Try this better cigarette tobacco

JUST get yourself a tidy red tin or a toppy red bag of Prince Albert. Roll a cigarette and light up. Half close your eyes and pull that wonderful, fragrant smoke deep down into your system. Boy, there IS a smoke! Cool as a breeze from the North. Sweet as apple cider.

P. A. is crimp-cut and stays put. Doesn't land in your lap or blow all over the landscape. Be glad that Prince Albert rolls easier, but buy it because it makes a better, tastier cigarette. You can prove that on your fingers, if you get what we mean. And you do.

Prince Albert is comfortable too. Can't nip your tongue or play hob with your throat. The Prince Albert process clamped the lid on bite and parch at the very outset of P. A.'s brilliant career. Try a makin's cigarette with this better tobacco today.

By the way, Prince Albert goes great in a jimmy-pipe too. If you have never been able to hit it off with a pipe, try this friendly tobacco. Men who thought they never could smoke a pipe are now among P. A.'s most loyal fans. Get some P. A. today. Enjoy it either way.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins and toppy red bags. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

The MAN With a BANK ACCOUNT Is Never Discouraged

Perhaps Jones needed a bit of "hard luck" to teach him a very important lesson. He had always boasted he could earn enough to support his wife and children, that he was still young and in good health, hence it wasn't necessary for him to save money, etc.

But recently, when his firm quit business, he found it wasn't so easy to go from one job to another. Employers always put him off till "next week." Bills were piling up at home. Jones began to look discouraged. That didn't help him find a job.

It was many weeks before he was finally able to get work; and the worry and hardship he went through made him determine that as soon as he cleared off the unpaid bills, he was going to start a savings account at the Farmers Trust Company—even if he started with five dollars!

PADEREWSKI AND ADVERTISING

"I practice every day," says Paderewski, the piano master. "If I fail to practice one day, I myself can notice the effect upon my playing; if I neglect the piano two days, the critics notice it; if I don't practice for three days the public notices it."

Doesn't this same thought apply to consistency in advertising?

Teacher has Novel Way of Conducting Program

Morning Class Starts With Resumption of Discussion In Progress When School Closed.

Mexico, Mo., Jan. 14 (United Press) – The "circular continuous" program of Allen B. Shattuck, teacher in the Cedar Grove county school here, is an innovation in methods of teaching and has attracted attention of school men of the district.

Shattuck starts his morning off by opening the class to the subject they were discussing when the school bell rang the evening before.

For instance. If the class happened to be going through part of Washington's campaign in the Revolutionary War, just as 4 o'clock ended the day—8:30 or 9 the next morning would find the class going right ahead with Washington.

Under this novel scheme only one class in the school year is begun on schedule—that the first class of the fall term. No subjects are neglected under the plan.

Shattuck claims his treatment of the class subjects is working out well and said it was one of the best schemes for taking care of a large enrollment.

Chicken Stealing Is Generally at Night

Columbia, Mo., Jan. 14 (United Press).—Chicken stealing in Missouri is purely a night crime.

A decision to this effect put Herman Hicks and Willis Smith, negroes, in the penitentiary for two years term instead of allowing them to serve a short sentence in jail.

The two negroes were charged with stealing chickens from the Misses Margaret and Julia Sampson. They however were unable to remember whether the chicken were stolen in the day time or at night. Chicken theft in the day time is a misdemeanor punishable by a short prison sentence. Night theft means a penitentiary sentence.

The jury, deciding the case, concluded that chicken thefts came at night and sentenced the negroes to the penitentiary.

Around Our Town

News was scarce around our town today. There's not much news in the fact that the newspaper reporters wore out a lot of shoe leather searching for things to tell the gentle reader, but it would be news if they would write a worthless check to pay for replacing that shoe leather. However, that's not the kind of news the reporters are looking for.

Because there wasn't anything else to do, and because the boss would never think of looking for his employes in a restaurant, the writer "loafed" in a local eating house for a half-hour, and this is what he saw:

A woman of no mean proportions came into the place and announced to her companion in one of these tell-the-whole-world stage whispers that she was only "going to eat a snack" because she was dieting.

So she proceeded to order a bowl of soup.

If the reporter had left at that juncture, there wouldn't have been much of a tale to this. However, he stayed and the woman in question sipped her soup, ate a steak with trimmings, a salad, a desert, and drank two cups of coffee.

Next a College boy came in and sat down at a table. Later two College girls entered and invited themselves to the same table. Somehow or other, they managed to have their checks paid also by the College boy.

Three precise dames sat at a table, counting calories and discussing vitamines.

Two waiters bumped. More dishes to buy.

The reporter was getting good "stuff." He sat back in his chair and lazily blew smoke rings—or rather tried to blow rings.

Just then the boss walked in. The reporter sneaked out, hurried to the office, and wrote this. Thank you.

Old Uncle Eben Jones went into a life-insurance office and requested a policy.

"Why, uncle," said the president, "you are too old for us to take the risk. How old are you?"

"Ninety-seven come next August," said the old man, and added testily: "If you folks will take the trouble to look up your statistics, you'll find that mighty few men die after they're 97."

Oklahoma Mine Area Takes Big Life Toll

In Addition To Those Entombed Yesterman, Eight Men Have Met Death In District.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Jan. 14. (United Press).—In the last six years eighteen men men have met their death in the McAlester mine area in accidents similar to the one at Wilburton Wednesday.

On August 23, 1920, ten men were killed in an explosion in the Degnan-McConnell mine No. 19 near Wilburton. This mine was operated by the same company that operates the mine where the explosion occurred Wednesday.

On October 22, 1922, eight men were killed in an explosion at McCurtain in Haskell county.

Both accidents were also the result of gas explosions in the mine.

More than 30 years ago the worst mine tragedy in the state occurred at Krebs, in the McAlester area. More than 100 miners were killed in the mine explosion at that time.

NEW ROADS TO BOOST STATE

SOME THINK MISSOURI WILL BE RESORT CENTER.

WILL OPEN THE OZARKS

Mountainous District Planning To Let Rest Of Country Know Of Advantages.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 14.—Missouri—the resort state of the middle-west.

Enthusiastic state boosters are predicting this as a possibility with completion of the hard roads, the active advertising projects for the Missouri Ozarks and the action of the Public Service Commission in granting license to the Missouri Hydro Electric Power Company to build a plant in Miller County. The power company still must obtain permission from Miller, Camden, Benton and Morgan counties.

With the completion of the state highways it will mean that motorists, who heretofore have avoided Missouri mud, will tour through the state—the boosters point out.

Then the Ozark region is planning to let the rest of the country know of the immense possibilities of the Ozarks as vacation sites. Attractive lakes, cabins and the hills are being told about.

The Hydro Electric Company's new plant will have 110 acres with an immense shore line.

Company officials and more of the enthusiastic state boosters point out that with completion of the lake, the shore line will be doted with small summer resorts. Cabins will be erected for the vacationers.

Completion of the hard roads system will add the greatest stimulus to making Missouri the vacation quarters of the middle-west it is pointed out. White ribboned routes through the state will take motorists to practically every beauty spot, which few but Missourians know about now.

In connection with the completion of the highways, especially Route No. 2, between Kansas City and St. Louis, there will be a festival of two days length this spring. The state highway commission has already decided on this course.

The tentative date for this festival of fete now is sometime in May.

Historical Spot May Give Way to Education

Pittsfield, Mass., Jan. 14.—Historic Appleton House, scene of the courtship of the poet Longfellow, may soon be razed to provide a site for a new high school here.

A commission appointed to select a site for the school has recommended to the city council that "the Longfellow house," as it is sometimes called, be torn down and the school erected in its place.

It was in this house that Longfellow got the inspiration for his famous poem, "The Old Clock On The Stairs."

Charley Martin More Important Than U. S. President Last Night

"Everything comes to him who waits, but Napoleon said, 'Everything comes to him who knows how to wait.'"

So quoth Charley Martin, general utility man and chef de luxe at the Farmers Trust Co.

Yesterday was Charley's day of days. He was in high command of the forces at the Farmers Trust Co. George L. Wilfley and W. C. Pierce, who generally directs the affairs of the institution, had to give way to one who is usually in the rear ranks.

"The way to a man's heart is through his stomach," reasoned this colored employe of some eighteen years service at the bank. And Charley reasoned correctly as any one of the twenty-five persons who attended the sixth annual "four-in-one" banquet in the bank's dining room last night will readily testify.

"Four-in-one" banquet? Yes, because Christmas, Fourth of July, Halloween and Thanksgiving are all observed at this one big event of the year. Decorations appropriate to all four holidays graced the walls of the dining room last night. There was an American flag, witches and black cats, turkey gobbler and holly wreaths.

The guiding light of the annual get-together feast was assisted by Mrs. Matilda Wilson, C. C. Baker, Mrs. Mattie Malcolm, Fannie Fleenor, Lucy Williams and Mrs. Dollie Martin. They served the following menu: Fruit salad and whipped cream, grape fruit, sweet pickles, celery, queen olives, roast young pig, dressing and gravy a la Jones-Pierce, sifted peas, snowflake potatoes, cranberry jell, hot biscuits, homemade apricot ice, vanilla ice cream (Martin's special), after dinner mints and nuts, homemade angel food cake, coffee, cigars and cigarettes.

That roast pig item demands a separate paragraph of explanation for it was a "s'prise," Charley whispered. At most of the annual dinners at the bank, Charley generally serves turkey. Col. W. C. Pierce on many occasions has suggested pig. So Charley "upset the dope last night" and brought out the pig, roasted to a nicety and oozing in gravy fit to tempt any ruler on a European throne.

But one "s'prise" wasn't enough for Charley. He "put another one" over on the bank force by providing a short and snappy musical and dancing program, furnished by one Paul ("Shike") Smith and his partner Orvin Willis, both artists extraordinary, who showed the bankers how singing and dancing really should be done.

Another interesting feature of the banquet last night was that all participants were on time.

"They gotta be here at 6:30 sharp or they don't git nothin' to eat," was Charley's decree to every one of the officers and employes of the bank. Several minutes before both hands on the courthouse clock pointed straight down, all were present and accounted for.

For Charley, who has been an employe of the Farmers Trust Co. since April 4, 1907, was the "man of the hour" last night.

Betty Barbara Chaves, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Chaves, was an honored guest at the banquet last night. Betty has been christened the "Bank Baby," for she was born on the same day as the annual dinner was held three years ago.

Those present last night:

George L. Wilfley, W. C. Pierce, W. F. Phares, A. K. Frank, George R. Ellison, M. S. Hamilton, H. D. Snyder, W. H. Allen, W. N. Deatherage, Jessie Fisher, L. L. Gray, Nora Ritze.

A comfort was tacked for Mrs. Ringold. The semi-annual election of officers was held during the business session. ALL WORN OUT?

So Was Mr. Bramble Who Tells His Experience.

Are you tired all the time; worn-out night and day? Does your back ache as if it would break? Do you suffer dizziness, headaches, rheumatic twinges or distressing urinary disorders? You have good cause, then, to be alarmed about your kidneys. Do as many of your townfolk recommend. Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. This Maryville case is convincing.

Geo. F. Bramble, retired blacksmith, says: "I had a dull ache in my back that kept up for two or three days at a time. The steady aching made me feel so tired I felt all worn out at the end of an ordinary day's work. I had dizzy spells, too at times when little black spots came before my eyes. Doan's Pills soon made me feel better. Several boxes relieved me."

How to stop BOILS!

There's only one way to stop boils. Stop the cause of boils! That's common sense—isn't it? All right. Boils thrive because the blood gets so weak in healthy, red cells that it can't throw off the impurities that get into the body. There's not enough rich, red blood to purify the system.

Now—S. S. S. builds back the blood to fighting strength. S. S. S. builds red-blood-cells — builds them by the millions! Boils dry up!

S. S. S. is the thing. Impurities that cause boils and other skin eruptions can't stand up against the rich, healthy, red blood that S. S. S. builds. That's all there is to it.

Stop boils with S. S. S. It's the way. Get it at any druggist. The larger bottle is more economical.

THE GIFT OF SCIENTISTS TO AMERICAN MOTORISTS

THE LABORATORY again gives that we may enjoy and benefit thereby.

Marland Super Motor Oil as now refined is the result of more than twenty-one years of ceaseless work, research and study.

It is the answer of scientists to the challenge for better lubrication.

Marland Super Motor Oil is refined by the Marland Refining Company under exclusive patents for North America. This process is patented in more than thirty countries.

A characteristic of Marland Super Oil is that it is "oilier" and "greasier" than other oils. It spreads quicker to parts to be lubricated, thoroughly "wetting" the surfaces, clinging to and penetrating every metal part it comes into contact with.

Because of this it is a "safe" oil—quicker starting is afforded and it is more efficient at high and low temperatures.

It is no more costly than other oils.

Look for Marland signs on stations and containers—there you will find Marland Super Motor Oils.

Facts about Child-Birth

FOR the expectant mother's comfort and well being, there is nothing that equals Mother's Friend. Its highly refined oils and other ingredients quickly commends it to the thoughtful mother. It is known that plain oils only penetrate the skin, whereas Mother's Friend penetrates deeper and soothes the broad muscles and ligaments; making them soft and pliable—thus aiding Nature to do her part without the unnecessary discomfort and pain. This is why Mother's Friend has proven such a blessing to expectant mothers for over three generations. Mother's Friend is the formula of an eminent physician. It is safe and free from harmful drugs.

"I will tell all my friends about Mother's Friend." Writes Mrs. Ben Sbraham, Princeton, Ill. "It is a wonderful help all through the period."

Needless to say the mothers who praise Mother's Friend the most, are those who did not use it with their first baby and through its use with the second, realized its almost unbelievable results.

Mother! Insist on Mother's Friend—the same as used by our mothers and grandmothers—don't wait—start using tonight—and meanwhile write Bradfield Regulator Co., Dept. 35, Atlanta, Ga., for free valuable booklet "Motherhood and the Coming Baby" (sent in plain envelope). It tells how Mother's Friend can help you during expectancy and at childbirth. This booklet also tells you many other things you want to know. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all druggists—everywhere.

Stomach Remedy A Fast Seller

Dare's Mentha Pepsin

Six Thousand Bottles Sold in One New Jersey Town Last Year. Koch Pharmacy Declares Money Back If One Bottle Doesnt Make Any Stomach Sufferer Rejoice.

At last the way has been found to combine Pepsin with other corrective stomach agents so that it will do the most good in the shortest possible time.

Why bother with slow actors when one tablespoonful of this splendid and pleasant liquid remedy will cause gas, bloating, heaviness, heartburn or any upset condition of the stomach to speedily vanish.

And why should any man or woman suffer another hour with indigestion or any stomach misery when the remedy that acts almost instantly can be easily procured?

But there is more to say about this remarkable remedy—something that will interest thousands of despondent people.

Dare's Mentha Pepsin not only quickly relieves stomach distress, but it also conquers stubborn indigestion, dyspepsia and gastritis, and puts an end to dizziness, nervousness, headache, sleeplessness and despondency which distressing troubles are nearly always caused by chronic stomach disturbance.

Dare's Mentha Pepsin is pleasant to take, has a delightfully refreshing taste and after it has put your stomach in a clean and healthy condition, just notice how much better you look and feel, for besides correcting stomach disorders this supremely good remedy that Koch Pharmacy and druggists everywhere guarantee, is a fine tonic that builds you up and makes you work with vim, eat with relish and sleep soundly.—Advertisement.

TAMMANY IN LEADING ROLE

TIGER SHOWS ITS CLAWS AND GOES INTO ACTION.

CLEANUP IS STARTED

New York City Officials Launch Campaign For Renewed Subway Building Involving Millions.

New York, Jan. 14. (United Press)—The Tammany Tiger which on New Year's Day walked out of its den and into complete control of New York's city government, has shown its claws and gone into action.

Big things have been happening in the twelve days since Mayor Walker took charge of affairs and, without any great fanfare there has been a shake-up from basement to garret. In a few instances the garret has been shaken down into the cellar. Among other things the city has launched a renewed subway building campaign involving the expenditure of millions.

Through all departments of the city government word has gone forth that "the public is the boss" and city employees must defer to the public's wishes. Since 1926 began no one has been called a "liar" at a meeting of the board of estimates, a most unusual fact when the affairs of the Hylan administration are recalled.

When Tammany elected Walker and its full ticket to succeed the Hylan administration, word went forth that Tammany intended to prove that no mistake had been made. Walker was a tiger cub discovered by Tammany on the sidewalks of the East Side, and reared through successive stages to the mayoralty by Tammany, just as Gov. Al Smith had been.

First, Police Commissioner G. V. McLaughlin got into action. Twenty-four hours after he took the office he began sweeping out the police department by elimination of the "special service squad" which was maintained to handle cases under the general term of "vice." It had been subject to heavy condemnation as a sort of closed corporation, not entirely free from influence.

Then McLaughlin looked over the police department and closed the training school for scientific policemen which his predecessor had established recently, and also a bureau of scientific detection where murder cases were solved by means of test tubes and gas burners and the like in the hands of chemists. He said others could do that work.

Next he began transferring police from swivel-chair jobs to more active jobs.

"The place for policemen is out on the street," said McLaughlin.

While McLaughlin was doing his job in the police department, Walker was busy on the subway question. He has thrown his weight behind the movement to increase the bond limitations of the city by $275,000,000 and to issue bonds to the limits which will finance an extensive subway program.

If Walker succeeds and the subways are built, then Tammany and Walker will get the credit from the voter who now leaves his work to fight his way onto a subway train and travel for half an hour hanging to a strap, if he is lucky.

Everywhere New Yorkers are talking of "Jimmie" Walker much as they talk of "Al" Smith. Crowds gather in the City Hall Park at lunch hour and again at 5 p. m., to catch a glimpse of "Jimmie" as his thin, sharp featured face appears.

Illinois Mines Are Now in Prosperous Era

Majority of Them Are Working Full Time In Order To Take Care Of Increased Demands.

East St. Louis, Ill., Jan. 14.—Southern Illinois mines—the majority of them working full time—today feel little effect of the anthracite strike, other than the increased prosperity from heavy production.

The mines are being worked now to supply mainly the industries of this region, few of which use anthracite coal. The campaign to use "Southern Illinois Coal" has had its effect. Coal dealers say. However, there is a quantity of Southern Illinois coal now being shipped into the eastern markets—ports which heretofore have not been reached from this bituminous area.

The anthracite strike, coal dealers in this district say, has not been felt.

About 10 years ago many of the industrial furnaces were made over from hard to soft coal burning furnaces and as a result there has been no great demand for hard coal. Most of the demands come from a few scattered home owners, who continue to burn hard coal.

One dealer in St. Louis told the United Press he had a plentiful supply of hard coal on hand, but no demand for it. Other dealers dealers said they had only a small quantity of hard coal, but that the demand for it was lacking.

When the anthracite strike was called five months ago it was feared that it might result in a systematic reaction among the miners of Southern Illinois. This, however, has not worked out, the operators and miners both declare.

Increased work in the mines this winter has resulted in a more stable living condition for the miners and their has been little talk of operator-miner disputes. The present mine wage contract has about a year to operate.

Closing Grain Review.

Chicago, Jan. 14.—Strengthening in the world situation reflected in sharply higher wheat prices at the close of the Chicago Board of Trade session today. Gains netted 2 to 3 cents with the major portion held although offers had a tendency to alter the trend. The improved undertone had already had a steadying effect on coarse grains. Oats held firm with little change noted.

The higher wheat checked the downturn in corn after fractional recessions.

Cables were the main contributing factor in wheat's rise.

A stimulating factor also was the scarcity of cash grain.

Corn traders went slow on the buying side. There was a tendency to take profits due to reports from Washington that farming interests were unable to agree upon a fixed policy for disposition of the surplus.

Oats were quiet. Strength in wheat brought in a few buying orders but local selling checked the advance.

Strong hog markets and a good export demand boosted provisions.

H. S. Play to Be Given in Auditorium Tonight

"The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary" To Be Presented By Members Of Mid-Year Graduating Class.

Taxed to the limit with more than two hours of mirth and entertainment, "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," a comedy-drama in three acts, from the stage success of Anne Warner, will be presented in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock tonight, by the mid-year graduating class of the Maryville High School.

"Aunt Mary" is a hink-hearted, peppy-tempered spinster, who has slept away most of her existence in the country, and she only awakens to the riotous roar of the gay life in a large city when she come to town to hunt up a scamp of a nephew whose guardian she is. She arrives at the time of a party given by her nephew, Jack, and his friends, and they proceed to offer "Aunt Mary" a roaring good time. Instead of cavilling, she falls in with the brisk pace to such an extent that, after her return to bucolic life, she is bored to death with the simplicity of things out among the cabbages and cows. She cannot overcome her longings, turns the old country house over to the servants and then proceeds to get as near as possible to the gayety of New York, where every turn of the clock's minute-hand spells a new amusement.

The cast of characters in the order in which they appear follows:

"Aunt Mary" Watkins, Jack's aunt and Lucinda's "she"—Eva Margaret Frank.

Jack Denham, Jr.—Charles Stanfield

Jack's chums:

Mitchell—Donald Bailey.

Clover—Forrest Eckert.

Burnett—Donald Aley.

Elizabeth Burnett, known as Betty later as "Granice"—Virginia Curnutt.

Lou LaVelle, Betty's chum—Kathryn Chandler.

Lucinda—Aunt Mary's girl—Ruth England.

John—Aunt Mary's hired man—Porterfield Cockayne.

Mr. Stebbens—Aunt Mary's lawyer—Arthur Cain.

The Girl from Kalamazoo—Hildred Fitz.

James—The Burnett's butler—Forrest Howland.

Daisy Mullens—a neighbor of Aunt Mary's—Gertrude Curfman.

Eva—The Burnett's maid—Mildred Wood.

Tom—The Cabman—Maurice Strong

Friends of the Burnett's:

Pat—Jack Harriness.

Peggy—Alice Aley.

Susan—Bessie M. Murray.

The scenes in the acts are as follows:

Act 1—Interior of Aunt Mary's home

Act 2—Living room in the Burnett home, three weeks later.

Act 3—Aunt Mary's room some weeks later.
